

Contract Sample
Athletic Training-Clinical Research
1 credit hour

Goals/Objectives

1. Gain an understanding of articular cartilage related procedures performed by the University of Kentucky Center for Cartilage Repair and Restoration
2. Gain a basic understanding of patient reported outcomes used to evaluate clinical outcomes among knee surgical patients
3. Gain experience in the use of SOCRATES patient outcomes software, becoming proficient in data entry and export
4. Observe clinical research in action in an active Sports Medicine Clinic

Tasks for completing objectives (with timelines)

1. Complete CITI human subjects protection training 1/15/2014
2. Complete assigned readings describing surgical procedures and outcomes instruments - by 1/31/2014
3. Assist with data entry of patient reported outcomes and operative reports in SOCRATES patient outcomes software as directed
4. Be present at UK Sports Medicine to assist with enrollment of patients in research as directed
5. Attend and participate in regular laboratory meetings - (Fridays)

Criteria, with percentages, for Assessment

- Completion of CITI training (5 points)
- Participation in weekly meetings (20 points)
- Professional behavior with peers, instructors, subjects (10 points) [Includes appropriate language, dress, written, oral and electronic communication]
- Completion of assigned readings (15 points)
- Completion of accurate data entry (25 points)
- Clinic attendance for recruitment of patients and data collection (25 points)

90 -100 = A 80 - 90 = B 70 - 80 = C 60 - 70 = D