

Contract Sample
Human Development Institute-Clinical Research
2 credit hours

Goals/Objectives

The student will gain an understanding of data collection, data analysis, and general reporting on a peer mentoring project for young adults with special health care needs.

Tasks for completing objectives (with timelines)

- Student will participate in face to face mentor training, providing assistance to trainers and participants who may need additional supports
- Student will conduct follow up survey with training participants and report on results
- Student will conduct follow along check ins with mentors, using project assessment tools (ongoing, fall semester)
- Student will assist in development of tools to assess mentoring effectiveness (ongoing, fall semester)
- Student will assist in analysis of project data (ongoing, fall semester)
- Student will assist in reporting of project data (ongoing, fall semester)

Criteria, with percentages, for Assessment

- Not provided